Enjoy a breath of fresh air with an outdoor activity focused on the theme of mountains and current ecological issues.

You are creating an NGO whose mission is the preservation of the mountains.

You start by creating the logo in land art, using snow and various natural elements. Then come eco-responsible challenges that raise participants' awareness of major environmental issues through a series of staged challenges on melting ice, climate change, biodiversity, pollution, and essential actors in environmental preservation.

Just as time is ticking to save our planet, each team will race against the clock in the various workshops to complete their mission within the allotted time.

This activity is designed as a collaborative effort and for the benefit of the environment. The score obtained by the teams across all challenges will contribute to funding operations for collecting wild waste, through a partnership with Mountain Riders.

Cani'Kart Travel

Adventure / Emotion / Discovery

Come and discover the team of sledding dogs, summer version!

Like a musher, you will live an experience in the company of a team of competitive huskies. Discover the fabulous history of mushing, meet these unusual dogs, pet them and take pictures with them, participate in their sled-riding, learn to use equipment and go on a Cani'kart ride on a private and secure track.
