Discover the legend of the Castle

In every Châteauform', an age-old secret is passed down from host to host...

This is the secret your participants will try to discover during this challenge!

It is the perfect opportunity for them to get to know each other better and reinforce their team spirit as they explore the site in this fun activity.

Participants are divided into teams and follow a route defined in a road book specifically designed for your company. A series of obstacles will call on their team spirit to help them find the "key" words necessary to solve the challenge.

Who will be the first to discover the secret that has been guarded so well by the hosts? Find out together at the prize giving with a drink at the bar or out in the grounds.

Vin'escape

The wine spirit has been chasing your sommelier host for several weeks now, and has been putting obstacles in his way in the run-up to this event. This prevents the wine tasting from going ahead as usual.

Participants are then put to the test as a team, solving riddles and answering questions about the world of wine, in order to break free from the control of the wine spirit.

To succeed, each team member must demonstrate discernment, logic and good communication skills.

The solution? Teamwork!

Objective: to break free from the control of the spirit of wine.
