Unlock the orchestra by Sylvain Audinovski

*Leaders, achieve Collective Synergy:
The Maestro's Way method!*

Leaders, embark your team on a memorable experience with Sylvain Audinovski, ODINO's great conductor with musicians for an "Inspirational ODINO Concert-ference" (1¼ hours of lecture in music) followed by a work session with Sylvain

Audinovski (2 hours):

Understanding and use of orchestra methods applied to your business.

This operational time supplements the emotional time unlocked by the "Concert-ference", which together create a new base for your team (3½ hours in total)

Two preparation phases must be scheduled between the Leader and Sylvain Audinovski prior to the seminar, in order to align the vision.

A very strong booster for your team which must be placed at the start of your seminar's schedule.

Meeting with the orchestra immediately unlocks positive and concordant discussions which will have a strong impact on the rest of the seminar.

About ODINO:

The ODINO orchestra is an independent orchestra which strives to make the orchestra accessible to all and everywhere, in order to share its assets, its best practices, its positions, by connecting 400 years of symphonic legacy to today's world.

The work they perform is very powerful, useful and unanimously appreciated by participants.

Piano rental is charged extra.

Travel expenses may be charged depending on the house in which the activity is organized.

Inspire your teams!

Hire an inspiring top voice to boost your teams and achieve new goals!

Facing major changes (strategy, headcount, etc.), new targets to set?

If your company is going through this, an inspiring top voice in sports can help your company recharge the batteries of your employees.

A motivational speech will inspire your participants to change their attitude or behaviour.

To do this, the speech is prepared in advance, to make sure that the message to convey is clear and suitable for the targeted audience, in order to have a deep impact.

Top voices in sports talk about their personal story to which everyone can relate.

This helps the participants believe they are capable of becoming game-changers.

When a top voice in sports shares his/her own success story, it brings in a personal aspect which enables participants to better understand how change can have an impact on their own lives.
