- * Dynamic relaxation: movements, performed standing up, punctuated by breathing and pauses, allow you to release unnecessary physical and mental tension.

These exercises from yoga and Japanese Zen allow you to achieve a state of physical and mental relaxation.

Live my life:

“Better understand other services and roles”

“Head down”, “On the ball”, “Under water”... So many expressions that characterize our daily lives.

In this ambient tumult, it is difficult to take the time to understand the reality of other professions. However, a clear vision of the organization and the roles of each person allows you to be more efficient and save time.

This session invites you to put yourself in the other person's shoes in a posture of dry empathy.

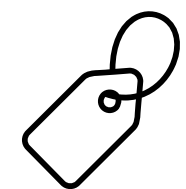

Using the LEGO® Serious Play method, participants model a job in your company that they draw at random. They represent the missions, accountabilities, etc. Then discussions open up and everyone provides clarifications about their own job. It is very surprising to see how some people perceive themselves on a daily basis. This sequence helps to break down preconceived ideas and get out of certainties.

“Fun session to optimize communication in your team”

Effective communication is a crucial element in the success of a team within an organization. However, it is not always straightforward to listen, articulate thoughts clearly, or manage dialogue. Through a series of engaging workshops, teams explore various modes of communication: under pressure, with limitations, and in complex scenarios. They collaboratively identify, as the iterations unfold, the essential components of successful communication and productive collaboration.

The objective of the game is to enhance the communication continuum between the initial and final games. Following each game, a debriefing session provides an opportunity to identify areas for improvement: we cease, we maintain, we experiment.

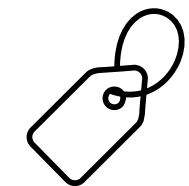

In conclusion, each team presents its insights to the group and outlines a series of actions to be implemented promptly based on the commitments. The challenges encountered in this process are identified, and recommendations for adjustments are proposed.

Let us create our low-carbon lifestyles.

"Decarbonize your lives and your businesses: take action!"

The objective of this game is to present information in a clear and visual manner, fostering a robust awareness that motivates individuals to alter their daily habits in accordance with the magnitude of the challenges we face. This game serves as an excellent tool for reinforcing workshops like La Fresque Du Climat, which elucidate the systemic nature of climate change. It enables participants to comprehend the disparity between the current state and the goal of achieving carbon neutrality by 2050.

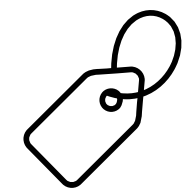

This kit presents the primary findings and orders of magnitude. The workshop is conducted by a facilitator specializing in collective intelligence, trained in group dynamics and educational games. It occurs in two phases: the first phase assesses the current situation, while the second phase focuses on creating lifestyles that align with Life, ultimately striving for carbon neutrality. Wine's casino

Surprise your guests with a unique, original and modern concept, inspired by the spirit of the wine casino: offer your guests several informal and participative themed gaming tables.

After being given an identical number of wine tokens, your guests can play at the tables of their choice (wine, cheese, beer, champagne and sparkling wine, chocolate, spirits...).

Whatever the world you choose, the sommeliers or hosts will invite your guests to place their bets during the quizzes, challenges and tastings.

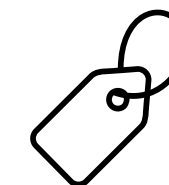

What's on the programme? Multi-discovery, tastings and, above all, entertainment!

60 seconds

In teams, you'll have to complete as many challenges as possible: quizzes, blind tests, general knowledge, etc...

All the participants will have to pool their knowledge to answer the questions, which will be combined with challenges.

During these challenges, one or more team members will come on stage to take on challenges involving balance, agility, speed, etc., all in under 60 seconds!

The event starts with a multimedia quiz (music, cinema, etc).

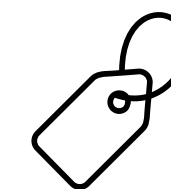

Then in the inter-quiz, the team with the lowest score will choose the challenge to be completed in 60 seconds flat.

Casino Evening

Authentic casino roulettes, ball tables and blackjack tables are served by professional croupiers and entertainers, bringing you back to the legendary world of gaming rooms.

The entertainment begins when the croupiers hand out 1 ticket of 1,000 to the guests. The host then announces that the casino is open. The guests then head for the tables, behind which the croupiers take care of making 'change' for the euros previously offered.

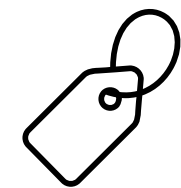

The games can begin: they last 1 hour and 15 minutes, after which an auctioneer raises the stakes on a number of gifts of various values that guests can obtain thanks to their 'winnings' for the evening or by getting together in groups to raise the stakes - even losers can win gifts.
