Yoga signifies "union"; it represents the integration of body and mind.

Hatha Yoga is an ancient practice, approximately 4,000 years old, and represents the Yoga of effort.

This style of Yoga involves the practice of a sequence of stretching and flexibility postures (asanas), integrated with breathing exercises (pranayama), culminating in a crucial phase: final relaxation.

Its benefits include balancing the body and mind by strengthening the primary muscle groups, enhancing spinal alignment, increasing lung capacity, and fostering concentration.

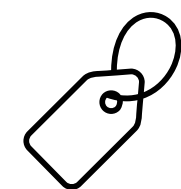

By achieving balance in the body, the mind can refocus, leading to enhanced health and well-being.

“Better understand other services and roles”

“Head down,” “On the ball,” “Underwater”... Numerous expressions that define our daily experiences.

In this chaotic environment, it is challenging to allocate time to comprehend the realities of various professions. Nevertheless, a clear understanding of the organization and the responsibilities of each individual enhances efficiency and conserves time.

This session encourages you to adopt a perspective of dry empathy by placing yourself in another person's position.

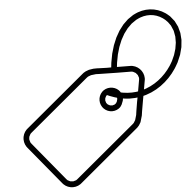

Utilizing the LEGO® Serious Play method, participants randomly select and model a job within your organization. They illustrate the associated missions, responsibilities, and more. This initiates discussions, allowing everyone to clarify their respective roles. It is quite revealing to observe how individuals perceive themselves on a daily basis. This process aids in dismantling preconceived notions and challenging established certainties.

“Fun session to optimize communication in your team”

Effective communication is a crucial element in the success of a team within an organization. However, it is not always straightforward to listen, articulate thoughts clearly, or manage dialogue. Through a series of engaging workshops, teams explore various modes of communication: under pressure, with limitations, and in complex scenarios. They collaboratively identify, as the iterations unfold, the essential components of successful communication and productive collaboration.

The objective of the game is to enhance the communication continuum between the initial and final games. Following each game, a debriefing session provides an opportunity to identify areas for improvement: we cease, we maintain, we experiment.

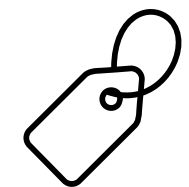

In conclusion, each team presents its insights to the group and outlines a series of actions to be implemented promptly based on the commitments. The challenges encountered in this process are identified, and recommendations for adjustments are proposed.

Let us create our low-carbon lifestyles.

"Decarbonize your lives and your businesses: take action!"

The objective of this game is to present information in a clear and visual manner, fostering a robust awareness that motivates individuals to alter their daily habits in accordance with the magnitude of the challenges we face. This game serves as an excellent tool for reinforcing workshops like La Fresque Du Climat, which elucidate the systemic nature of climate change. It enables participants to comprehend the disparity between the current state and the goal of achieving carbon neutrality by 2050.

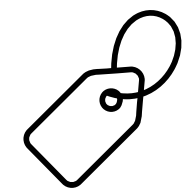

This kit presents the primary findings and orders of magnitude. The workshop is conducted by a facilitator specializing in collective intelligence, trained in group dynamics and educational games. It occurs in two phases: the first phase assesses the current situation, while the second phase focuses on creating lifestyles that align with Life, ultimately striving for carbon neutrality. Photobooth

Utilizing a photo booth, they will be at the center of the action and can immerse themselves in the experience with various accessories.

Upon selecting an accessory (hats, glasses, mustaches), individuals position themselves in front of the green backdrop, choose their preferred decor, and strike a pose.

Photos are printed in under 10 seconds in a 10 x 15 cm format, featuring your logo and/or tagline incorporated.

Each individual may depart with their photograph, without any restrictions on printing.

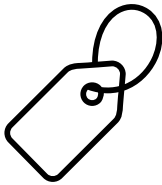

We provide the option to customize the outline of the photos to emphasize your event and brand, as well as to make selections in advance.
