Initiations Padel

From its very beginnings, padel has won over the countries of South America and Spain, and then Europe. In Argentina, it has become the national sport with over 4 million players, and in Spain the million mark was passed in the 1980s. In the 2010s, neighboring European countries (France, Belgium, Italy and England) caught the bug of this “city sport”.

We offer ½-day introductory lessons with a certified padel instructor.

- Initiation: 1h to 1h30
- Organization of mini-tournaments: 1h30 to 2h00

Escape by electric bike

Whether you are at the foot or on the Sainte Baume, this extraordinary limestone massif, the escape will allow you to approach the electric mountain bike in an exceptional setting. You will discover an area of primary forest, but also a natural river irrigated by the sources of the Huveaune which runs to Marseille.

Discover the small village of Rougiers before taking a deserted forest road which sometimes offers us the chance to encounter animals.

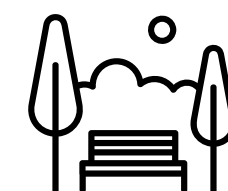

Once on the plateau we have a magnificent view of the Southern Alps, the Sainte Victoire by Paul Cézanne as well as troglodytes. Return by the descent to Nans and small country road to the estate. We will avoid busy roads as much as possible.

Chain reaction

Live a unique experience whose goal is to “succeed together”. No confrontation, ranking or challenge... As in your company, each participant takes part in the success of the project.

Teams will be formed and will be tasked with creating one of the stages of this giant chain reaction. The challenge is then to communicate well together in order to properly link each of the stages together.
